PROJECTS

CRM

C#/.NET, JavaScript

Built a simple customer relation management web app to help keep track of your customers/leads and communicate with team members.

MovieBot

C#/.NET, JavaScript, Python

Built a chat application wherein the user can ask questions that are answered by the app/bot. The answers come from a database that was scraped from a website of movie scripts.

LMPD Traffic Stops Data Explorer

C#/.NET, JavaScript

Used the Louisville Metro Police Department's traffic stop data to build a LINQ-queryable database wherein a user can query traffic stop data, specifying several variables such as race, age and gender. The user can then see what percentage of these queried stops resulted in a warning or issued citation and how it compares to the average warning/citation rate.
